Closing Thoughts	4

Dear Friends,

For the hope of the wicked is as dust, which is blown away with the wind, and as a thin froth which is dispersed by the storm: and a smoke that is scattered abroad by the wind. But the just shall live forever: and their reward is with the Lord...

The Book of Wisdom 5:15-16

Wait on the Lord, and keep His way, and He shall exalt you to inherit the land: when the wicked are cut off, you shall see it. I have seen the wicked in great power, spreading himself like a green bay tree. Yet he passed away, and look, he was not: I sought him, but he could not be found.

Psalms 37:34-36

If you have ever been the victim of a bully, whether as a kid or an adult, you know from experience they do not withdraw easily. Unless a bully is forced by a power greater than himself, he will press in more and more. If he suspects slight retaliation he will respond with greater force. The only means of victory over a bully is to completely undo him - either by the greater force of power, which does not change the enemy, but only subdues him, or by the far greater force of love, which transforms your enemy into a friend. The second is of course the best. But it is not always immediately manifested. In times of great evil the force of love may appear as the force of sheer resistance to evil.

We are in a civil war in this nation. For those who are refusing to see clearly, there is enough of the residue of peace and safety to provide a shallow resting place. But a clear and present danger is rising. For those who are fully awake, who refuse false peace, and who face the danger in order to resist and eventually overturn it, there is the discomfort of Reality supported by the comfort of truth. But to the sleeper who wants only to watch his favorite comedy show and ignore the signs, there will be sudden shock leading to long term sorrow. One day the signs ignored by turning the channel will knock at his front door, and there will be no place to hide.

The hope of the wicked has always been that good people will just keep quiet and try to get along. If the forces seeking to expose and overturn the dark powers that have been ensconced in this nation only win a short-term victory, if we allow business as usual to go on as it always has, then going along to get along will result in the next scenario of American history. It will be the complete collapse of our freedoms, the rise of perversions ensconced as the new establishment, and the full suppression of not only the gospel, but of sheer decency. For those fighting on the front lines to expose and overcome the evil, there is only one outcome: complete uprooting and purging of that old system. The fighters of the deep state know it. The wicked know it too. So they are fighting now with everything they can. Their position has never been more precarious. The open sheer murder of newborn babies is the raising of the demonic sacrifice to Moloch. They seek a release of greater power for the battle is pushing against them. A new experience for them will be for us to PUSH BACK!

There is a quiet danger we may not be aware of. That is to believe that this present evil is inevitable, unchangeable, and too ensconced to be overthrown. Do you believe that? Check yourself and see. Be wary of becoming weary in well doing. But also even more, be wary of never even trying to do well, to penetrate the darkness because we are more comfortable to believe that we are not in grave danger. For if you believe such lies then YOU ARE THE HOPE OF THE WICKED. They are counting on you to believe that. When good people do nothing, evil triumphs.

I believe the wicked can be overthrown. Not at the end of the age. But NOW! If I am wrong, it is far better to be wrong and fight than to be right and do nothing. Find your place on the battle line and fight for life, for truth, and for restoration of sanity. For this is what love does in the face of evil. We overcome evil with good. We may find we are defeating our enemies by making them come to love what He loves.

MOVIE REVIEWS

Mary Poppins Returns

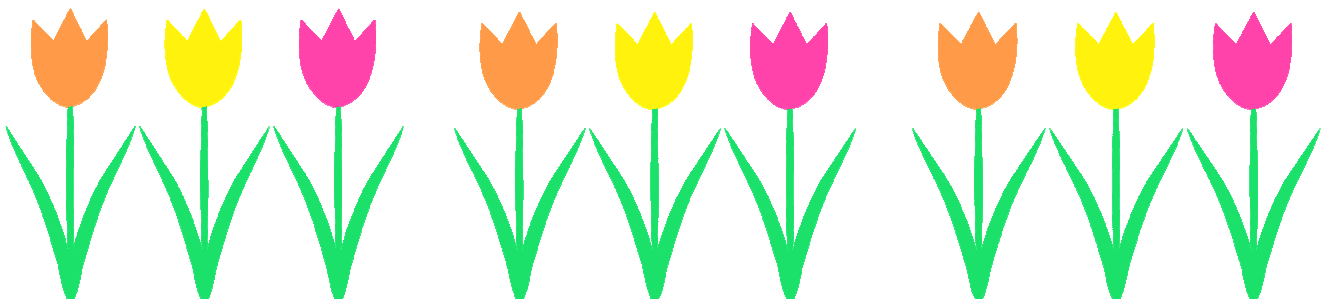

To save you from my over intensity, Mary asked me to include this review. Mary Poppins Returns is a wonderful story where goodness triumphs over evil in magical fun, genius musical lyrics, incredible dance sequences, and vibrant performances. There are a few surprises in the cast as well. It is a must-see for the whole family, especially if you have little ones. And it is a great relief from the pressures we grownups have to deal with day in and day out. Be prepared to reawaken your childlike imagination. Relax and enjoy! (It also makes Mary and me miss London very much.)

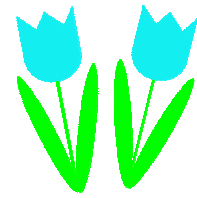

Gosnell

If you have not yet watched Gosnell, buy it on line and watch it, then make sure you invite others to see it. It is not entertaining though it is well made. I am not asking you to see it because it's a good film. I am asking you to see it because it is a NECESSARY MESSAGE. For I am amazed and disturbed at how many believers don't even know what is happening to babies in America. And they choose to stay ignorant. This film removes excuses.

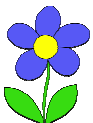

Closing Thoughts...

Of the times and seasons you have no need that I write you. For you know that the day of the Lord comes like a thief in the night. For when people shall say Peace and Safety, that is when sudden destruction comes and they shall not escape. But you are not in darkness that the day should overtake you as a thief. You are all children of the light and children of the day. We are not of the night, nor of the darkness. So let us not sleep as do others...
